

Spooks

Paula Towers

♩ = 80

Em

There is a place, high on a hill, Where we can go, it's such a 4 B7
thrill, The sky-larks sing, the cows do munch, We some-times stop to have our 8 Em Am G B7
lunch, But on this day, the fog came down, We could-n't see the sky or 12 Em Am G B7 Em
town, We could-n't hear a sin-gle sound, And then the earth be-gan to pound.
17
A kind of drum, what could it be? Is it the phan- tom af- ter
23 B7
me? We stood stock still, we could-n't move, Was it the sound of run-ning
27 Em Am G B7
hooves? Or could it be the bag of bones From the Toots' tump, that groans and 31 Em Am G B7 Em
moans? What could it be? We did-n't know, We're ve- ry scared, and want to go!
36
So Ro-ry barked, and Lad-die too, I did-n't know what we should 42 B7
do, I just stood there, a quiv-'ring wreck, I could-n't move, and thought 'Oh

46 Em Am G B7
heck!' Then from the fog, out of the gloom, A seeth-ing mass of hor-ses

50 Em Am G B7
loomed, A sweat-ing mob, a fro-thing horde, I just stood there, stiff as a board. I closed my eyes; I thought 'That's it! We're going to die, I'm such a twit'. I thought I should have tried to save My two great dogs that are so brave', But I stood there, legs like jel - ly, In-stead of

54 Em

60 B7

64 Em Am G

68 B7 Em Am G
yel - ling, 'Whoa Ne - lly!' I wait-ed for o - bli - vi - on, But noth - ing

72 B7 Em
came, we still lived on. I op-ened up one eye then

78 B7
two, The dogs a - live, bark-ing a - new, The hor - ses gone, the fog still

82 Em Am
there, The phan-tom still could be some - where, We did - n't wait or hang a -

86 G B7 Em Am round, But head-ed off a - cross the ground, Then with a sigh of great re -

90 G B7 Em
lief, We saw the car, in dis - be - lief. So Ro - ry

96

B7

led us through the fog, He's real - ly an a - ma - zing dog, And Lad - die

100

Em

helped him nav - i - gate, As I was in a use - less state, We reached the 104

Am

G

B7

Em

car and clam - bered in, I star - ted up the old en - gine, The hor - ses

108

Am

G

B7

Em

gone, the phan - tom too! Scared off by dogs both brave and true.